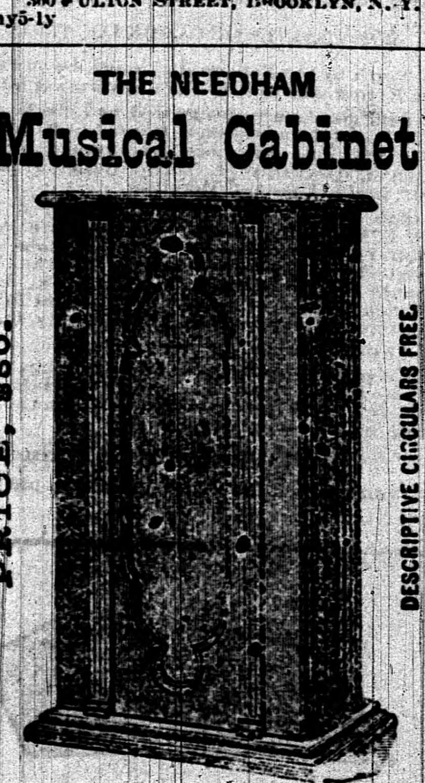
THE NEEDHAM
Musical Cabinet



PRICE, $50.
DESCRIPTIVE CIRCULARS FREE.

THIS new and wonderful Instrument enables any one, whether understanding music or not to play any desired melody or harmony, sacred or secular, from the most plaintive dirge to the most lively dance music. It possesses a mechanism of marvelous simplicity, requiring but the intelligence of a child to manipulate, yet capable of reproducing, without limitation, the musical compositions of the PAST, PRESENT and FUTURE. The execution is faultless, strict in melody, harmony and rhythm, and the instrument is eminently adapted for Sunday Schools, prayer and revival meetings, home devotional exercises and in all cases where good, correct music is required, and no musician is at hand to perform. Disgraceful Business.

There has been secretly circulated through the mails without even postmarks an anonymous circular, libelous in its character, against Daniel F Beatty of Washington, N. J., proprietor of the Beatty Piano and Beatty's celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organs.

It is supposed to have been done by competitors in the business, as none others would be to the trouble and expense, even if they had no fear of the punishment if detected, and the cause is attributed to the fact that Mr. Beatty has been making a very successful war upon high prices in those instruments.

We have received from Mr. Beatty the following open letter addressed to him by the officials and prominent men of his own town.

WASHINGTON, N. J., July 5, 1877.

To Daniel F. Beatty, Esq.:

It having come to our knowledge that communications written with an intent to falsify you and injure your business, have appeared in a certain periodical, we therefore, as citizens of this place—having known you for years—consider it an act of justice to you to pronounce all such communications to be entirely uncalled for and slanderous, and endorse you as being, so far as we have ever been able to judge, a man of sterling integrity and prompt in all your business transactions. Signed, Nathan [illegible]ilts, Mayor; Alpheus Babcock, G. A. Thatcher, Henry Winter, and Wm. E. Cummins, Councils; Joseph Vleit, Judge of the Court; James H. Groff, Vice President, and P. H. Hann, Cashier First National Bank; Rev. J. J. Reed, Pastor M. E. Church (acquainted but few months); J. V. Creveling, Jos. A. Shrope and John C. Winter, Justices of the Peace; John Gardner, Sheriff, and Richard B. Shaffer, Deputy Sheriff of Warren county; A. W. Creveling, General Merchant; Philip Johnston, late Assessor, and others.

I certify that I am acquainted with the hand writing of the above, and recognize all of them as genuine. The gentlemen are of our best citizens, and I fully concur in the letter.

OSCAR JEFFERY,
Counselor-at-Law and Notary Public.

We can hardly conceive of a more complete answer to such a libel than the above letter, but Mr. Beatty requests all interested to address him for full reply, and asks for information touching the parties circulating the libel if any can be obtained, with a view to their prosecution and punishment. *

During the present war in the East a great demand for the Bible sprang up among the Cossacks, and the British Bible society distributed over 60,000 in a few weeks. The Cossacks had discovered that the excellent linen paper makes the best of gun wadding, and thus the gospel was spread among the Turks.

It has always been contended by mineralogists that the veins of mineral throughout Maine are silver bearing, but direct proof of this fact has been wanting. Prof. Bartlett, of Portland, has just received from Sullivan fine specimens of native silver ore found in that town.

A Riverhead, L. I., clergyman recently united in marriage a man of twenty and a woman of eighty. She was a widow.

CHARITY.

Not long ago a young and poorly-clad girl entered a barber's in Vienna and told the proprietor that he "must buy her head" The barber examined her long, glossy, chestnut locks, and began to bargain. He could give eight gulden, and no more. Hair was plentiful this year; the price had fallen; there was less demand, and other phrases of this kind. The little maiden's eyes filled with tears and she hesitated a moment while threading her fingers through her chestnut locks. She finally threw herself into a chair.

"In Heaven's name," she gasped, take it quickly."

The barber, satisfied with his bargain, was about to clinch it with his shears, when a gentleman, who sat half shaved, looking on, told him to stop.

"My child," he said, "why do you want to sell your beautiful hair?"

"My mother has been nearly five months ill; I can't work enough to support us; every thing has been sold or pawned, and there is not a penny in the house."

"No—no, my child," said the stranger; "if that's the case, I will buy your hair, and give you a hundred gulden for it."

He gave the poor girl the note, the sight of which had dried her tears, and took up the barber's shears. Taking the locks in his hand, he took the longest hair, cut it off alone, and put it carefully in his pocket book, thus paying one hundred gulden for a single hair. He took the poor girl's address, in case he should want to buy another at the same rate. This charitable man is designated as the chief of a great industrial enterprise within the city of Vienna.

In 1810 Secretary of State Pickering wrote to the British minister: "Mr. and Mrs. Pickering have received the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Liston to dine with them next Monday, which would be accepted with pleasure, but that Congress do not allow persons holding executive office under the United States (unless they possess private fortunes) to have any convivial intercourse with foreign ministers, and scarcely admit of it with the most intimate of their fellow-citizens. It is deemed honor enough for executive officers to toil without interruption for their country, and indulgence enough to live on mutton, mush and cold water."

POOR GIRLS.—The poorest girls in the world are those who have never been taught to work There are thousands of them. Rich parents have petted them; they have been taught to despise labor, and depend upon others for a living, and are perfectly helpless. If misfortune comes upon their friends, as it often does, their case is hopeless. The most forlorn and miserable women in the world belong to this class. It belongs to parents to protect their daughters from this deplorable condition. They do them a great wrong if they neglect it. Every daughter should be taught to earn her own living. The rich as well as the poor require this training. The wheel of fortune rolls swiftly round—the rich are very likely to become poor and the poor rich. Skill to labor is no disadvantage to the rich and is indispensible to the poor. Well to-do parents must educate their children to work. No reform is more imperative than this.

For value received, one day after I at any time become intoxicated or drunk, or mistreat or abuse Minnie Myers, I promise to pay to L. M. Phillips, the sum of $600 for the use of Minnie Myres, with ten per cent. interest from maturity until paid.

In consideration of the execution of this instrument Mrs. Myers went to live with her husband again. He soon broke his promise to keep sober and kind, however, and Phillips, to whom the money was to be paid, brought suit upon the agreement. The defence was want of sufficient consideration, but the Supreme Court of Illinois has held the instrument to be a valid contract.

It is a curious fact that, notwithstanding the sure destruction of houses built near the base of Mt. Vesuvius, sooner or later, still the Italians do not cease to build there. The town of Terre del Greco, containing nearly 10,000 inhabitants, is built entirely upon the lava streams of 1631.

The wife of a certain member of Parliament being told by her husband that he would bring her home "Dombey & Son," ordered beds to be made up for them.

An old bachelor explains the courage of the Turks by saying that a man with more than one wife ought to be willing to face death at any time.

In a proclamation addressed "to the smoking public," by which we do not understand that it is meant to be intimated that the public is just now in a smoking condition, but merely to confine the address to those persons who use cigars, an association of cigar manufacturers have made it pretty plain that a good many of the cigars which are sold in the shops are chemically flavored counterfeits, a good many others are unwholesome, and a good many positively nasty. As the buyer and smoker of cigars is left in pleasing uncertainty as to what cigars are properly to be avoided as counterfeit, which are unwholesome and which are nasty, the present appears to be a particularly good time for a general swearing off Wise smokers will abandon the use of cigars and adopt the pipe instead, as the Scotchman refused to drink wine, preferring whisky—the more, he said, because there is nothing against it in scripture. Perhaps still wiser smokers will abandon the habit altogether, as one which is in itself uncleanly and unwholesome.

At the burial the other day of the Queen Dowager Amelia Augusta of Saxony, the Imperial Prince Frederick William, of Germany, was the most conspicuous figure. He seemed to tower above all his royal companions in stature, and surpassed all in dignity of carriage and manly beauty. When the funeral procession in church arrived at the altar, the coffin was carried down into the royal vault, which was hung with black velvet, on which sparkled the royal crown. The Prince alone witnessed the melancholy and impressive ceremony in the interior of the vault.—The bishop knocked at the innermost door, whereupon a deep, sepulchral voice answered, "Who troubles the quietness of the dead?" The bishop. "A Queen wishes to enter." The voice, "Is she worthy of this sacred abode?" The bishop having replied in the affirmative, the door was opened by unseen hands. This ceremony reminds one of the burial of dead Egyptian Kings.

Herr Boefinger, an ingenious gentleman of Heilbronn, has invented what he calls a Patentirtepetroleumkochapparat—in plain English, a patent petroleum cooking apparatus, which posesses the peculiar quality of lighting itself at any specified hour. The machine is furnished with an indicator, the finger of which can be turned to the appointed time, and when the time arrives the fire begins to burn, the water to boil and the meat to roast. A man who wants an early breakfast—supposing him to be the fortunate owner of a Patentirtepetroleumkochapparat—has thus only to arrange matters overnight, set the indicator, and on rising next morning he will find everything ready without the intervention of a sleepy and probably difficult-to be awakened servant.

The Boston public mourn the loss of the greater number of the choice swans, geese and ducks, which have added so much to the attractions of the Forest Hills Cemetery. A couple of worthless dogs burrowed their way into the fowl enclosure a few days ago, and slaughtered thirty-six of them, valued at $400 The curs were afterward caught and slain without delay, and the owner of one of them has the remarkable face to threaten to sue the corporation for damages.

A poor woman once called on Theodore Barriere, the French dramatist and, after telling him a tale of suffering got 10 francs from him. After she had gone he saw something sparkling on the table near where she had sat. He examined it. "A tear!" he said, "a real tear! I should have given her twenty."

If you wish to find out the length of day and night any time of the year, double the time of the sun's rising, which gives the length of the night, and double the time of the setting, which gives the exact length of the day.

During the uproar following the appearance of Darwin, clad in his scarlet doctor's gown, at Cambridge University recently, a stuffed monkey was lowered from the gallery, bearing the legend: "The missing link."

Among the inventions to which the present war in the east has given birth, is a preparation of tea and sugar for camp use. It is put up in boxes, and a spoonfull of the mixture is sufficient to make a cup of tea.

Cooing is in order before marriage; but the billing generally comes afterwards—for dresses and bonnets, et cetera, you know.

Bows continue as stylish as ever for trimming in fashionable circles. It makes no difference how you spell the words—"bows" or "beaux."

COPP'S HAND BOOK OF MINING LAWS.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A work needed by every Miner, Prospector, Speculator, Agent, Attorney, Recorder, Broker, and business man in the Mining States and Territories.

Price only $1 00. Price only $1 00.

A COMPLETE, HANDY [illegible] Book on all questions under the United States Mining Laws. The latest reliable work extant on the subject.

READ ITS CONTENTS AND SEND FOR A COPY.

ALL YOUR ENTERPRISING NEIGHBORS WILL HAVE IT.

CONTENTS.

1. The United States Mining Laws and Land Office instructions thereunder. Each section of the law is immediately followed by the Land Office instructions relating thereto. This is a convenient arrangement as it avoids turning several pages when the instructions are considered in connection with the law.

2. A Digest of all the decisions under the Mining Laws now in force. It is brought down to date of publication, and containing the latest decisions, takes the place of all prior publications.

3. New and Improved Forms for making the various proofs from the location of a claim, miner's lien, notice to delinquents co-owners, &c., down to issuance of patent.

4. A Complete List of Patented Mining Claims, arranged by State, Territory, County, and District. This list is worth to mining men many times the price of the book.

The book contains nearly 200 pages 4½ by 6 inches, and is designed to be a pocket companion for every wide-awake man in the mining camps and financial centers of the West. The work is for sale at the LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

FOUND DEAD—A SAD END.—About ten o'clock on Wednesday morning the dead body of Peter Peterson, an old and well-known resident of this town, was found lying in front of his cabin on Water street. An examination showed that the face had been terribly mutilated by hogs, one being near the body when it was discovered; one of his hands had also been mutilated. The hogs had eaten into his neck and cut the jugular, the head lying in a pool of blood. It is supposed that he had gone home intoxicated, and had fallen where found, the key of his cabin being found near him. He was probably stunned by the fall, or fell asleep, when he was attacked by a hog cutting the jugular vein and causing him to bleed to death.—The deceased was a good hearted man, but strong drink had been his greatest vice for some time past. Justice Payne held an inquest on the body, the jury returning the following verdict:

We, the undersigned, summoned as a Coroner's Jury, to inquire into the death of Peter Peterson, do find that said Peter Peterson was a resident of Silver Mountain, Alpine County, California; that he was a native of Norway, was at the time of his decease aged fifty three years, and came to his death between the hour of 8 P. M. January 1st, and 11 A. M. January 2d, 1878, while in a state of intoxication, by falling from the steps of his cabin at Silver Mountain, Alpine county. Col. N. D. Arnot, Jr. Foreman; Jn. Sauquet, R. M. Folger, R. H. Ford, E. Bemis, D. W. Davis, Ole Nelson, P. W. Parker, H. C. Ginn, Approved, A. D. L. Payne, Justice of the Peace and acting Coroner.

The funeral of the deceased took place on Thursday afternoon from the Alpine House and was generally attended by our citizens, the services being conducted by Rev. R. H. Ford.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A postal card received last evening from Postmaster Merrill, of Woodfords, informs us that Lewis Anderson was killed on Thursday last at Temple's wood camp in Stowell's Canon, on the East Fork of the Carson river, by a log rolling over him and crushing in his skull. He was a native of Norway and aged about thirty years. He was a stranger, and has two brothers residing in San Francisco.

HOGS.—The mutilation of the body of the late Peter Peterson by hogs has created a great feeling against hogs running at large in our town. They go in droves and parents are fearful that if anything should happen to their children while playing on the street, that they would be attacked by the brutes and killed.

COLD.—We have had a spell of very cold weather this week—so far as our nights are in question—on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock the thermometer stood at zero. Other mornings it has registered from 2° above zero to 10° above. The days are, however, pleasant. Fine, healthy weather!

DELINQUENT LIST.—We to-day publish the delinquent list of the Advance Company. The Company collected enough to pay much of its debt, and it is likely that much more will be collected before the day of sale.

TAXES.—Taxes become delinquent on Monday next. Taxes remaining unpaid at the closing of the Sheriff's office on that day will be materially increased by the addition of five per cent. and two per cent a month interest until paid.

SOCIAL DANCE.—A social dance was indulged in at Fisk's Hotel last evening. It was largely attended, and is said to have been one of the pleasantest ever given in our town.

ANNEXATION TALK.—The Nevada papers are just now having considerable to say about plots and schemes, which no one but themselves seem to know of, which have for their object the annexation to Nevada of Mono and Alpine counties. A number of the interior papers of this State also seem to be considerable exercised on this subject. Here in Mono county and in the neighboring Nevada county Esmeralda, nothing is known or heard of these rumors or plots. Mono county appears to be pretty well contented with the present arrangement of affairs; and Esmeralda county does not appear to have many nets laid for our capture. In fact the best of understanding and most amicable feelings exist between the two counties as such, but one has to go away from home to learn the news(?).—Bodie Standard.

We learn that a deputy county officer is about starting out with a petition in favor of annexing Alpine to Nevada, but we think he will have his trouble for nothing. The more our people canvas the matter the less disposed are they to support such a measure.

At a dinner of the Banks Club at Boston Saturday evening, General Butler spoke at length on the political situation. He defended the President's title but criticised his Southern policy.—About eighty prominent Republicans were present. Banks and others made speeches.

WILL MEET.—The annual meeting of the Mountain Company will be held at San Francisco on Monday next.

A YEAR'S FIGURES.—There were 2397 marriage licenses issued in San Francisco, in 1877, and 243 divorces granted.

The Internal Revenue receipts amounted to $1,333,752 46.

The Customs duties were $6,692,432 56.

The value of the precious metals produced in the States and Territories west of the Missouri River was $98,421,754.

There was taken to China in treasure in 1877, $17,601,273.

Our police force made 19,262 arrests, and the Police Court fines amounted to $23,276.

New law suits, civil, were instituted to the number of 3969, the Court fees being $60,831 75.

Property worth $997,396 98 was destroyed by fire last year, the insurance on the same being $2,098,679 92.

The net gain in population by emigration hither was 17,293.

There were 5503 deaths in the city in 1877, of which 3386 were males and 2119 females.—S. F. Chronicle.

H. L. Dodge, the new Superintendent of the San Francisco mint signalized his entry upon the duties of his position on Wednesday last by discharging twenty six women and two or three men.—The changes are for the purpose of effecting a reduction of the force in accordance with the new rules of the Civil Service. T. H. G. Robertson is made Chief Clerk, vice Frank Gross, removed. Gross takes the position of Assistant Bookkeeper, vice Gibson, resigned.

Last week, at Monroeville, Indiana, Philip Mortz and his friends fired into a crowd who were "belling" him and his bride on the occasion of their marriage, wounding nine persons, three seriously. The happy groom and one of his friends were arrested.

The banks in San Antonio, Texas, paid the workingmen of the town $50,000 in Mexican dollars, and the next day refused to take it for less than 5 per cent. discount.

That's business!

The notorious Northampton bank robbers, Scott and Dunlap, have each been sentenced to twenty years in the State Prison.

Among the Dead Failures.

Of the past, how many bogus nostrums may be numbered! Beginning their careers with a tremendous flourish of trumpets, blazoned for a time in the public prints and on flaming posters, soon, but not too soon, were they relegated to the limbo of things lost on earth.—But Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a living and thriving remedy. It goes on, curing and to cure. Neither underhand nor open competition affect it. On the contrary, contrast with interior rival preparations only increases its popularity. It has been repeatedly imitated, but without success. Counterfeits of it have been surreptitiously introduced, but have fallen flat. Everywhere it entrenches itself in the confidence of the people; and well it may, for it is a thoroughly reliable invigorant of the feeble, banishes dyspepsia and constipation, braces the nerves, cures rheumatic ailments and kidney complaints, and eradicates and prevents intermittent and remittent fevers.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

MEDICAL.

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effect o youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are treading on dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering on the last, and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination, the time must come when the most skillful physician can render no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success.— Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25 00. Send money by Post Office order or Express with full description of case C. O. D. or Address,

SCHOOL TEACHERS: You can easily increase your salary by devoting a very small portion of your leisure time to my interest. I do not expect you to canvass for my celebrated Beatty Pianos and Organs unless you see fit to; but the service I require of you is both pleasant and profitable. Full particulars free. Address, DANIEL F. BEATTY, Washington, New Jersey. je30-ly

DANIEL F. BEATTY'S

PARLOR ORGANS.

These remarkable instruments possess capacities for musical effects and expression never before obtained, adapted for Amateur and Professional, and an ornament in any parlor. Excel in quality of Tone, Thorough Workmanship, Elegant Designs and Finish, and wonderful variety of their combination stops. Every instrument fully warranted for six years as strictly first-class in every respect, and as a guarantee they are shipped on from five to fifteen days' test trial, money refunded and freight charges paid both ways by me if they are misrepresented or in any way prove unsatisfactory. No such offer has ever been made. Beware of imitations. Agents wanted, but where I have none, large discounts made to introduce in new localities. Send for illustrated ADVERTISER, containing long lists of testimonials from well-known persons, some of whom you may know, classified by States, with Post-offices annexed, that all may enquire direct of them. Address, DANIEL F. BEATTY, Washington, New Jersey. je30

Good Reading and Beautiful Pictures
WILL DO IT.

THE CINCINNATI

WEEKLY STAR,

A fine eight-page paper, with 48 full columns, costs only $1.00 per year (we pay postage), and is the largest, brightest, and best paper published for the money. It is independent in politics, gives all the news, and, besides much other good reading, every number has three or four excellent original or selected stories. Every subscriber also receives a copy of the beautiful engraving, "The Poor the Poor Man's Friend," size 24x30 inches, and a copy of THE STAR ILLUSTRATED ALMANAC. 25 cts. extra must be sent to pay expense of packing and mailing premiums. ☞ Our Inducements to Agents, always the most liberal in the field, are now greater than ever. We want every club agent in the country to communicate with us before commencing work. To any person desiring to get up a club, we will send a sample copy of the picture and a canvasser's outfit for 25 cts. Specimen copy of paper free. Send for one before subscribing for any other.

Persons to whom we have already sent the picture, "The Poor the Poor Man's Friend," by saying so can have in its stead another excellent engraving, of same size, which we have secured for this purpose.

☞ Paper without picture, One Dollar.
